

LONG RECEIVES 40 YEARS SERVICE AWARD

Mr. Javon Bradley putting the finishing touches on a Rock Hill student during the Back to School Free Haircuts Event

ROCK HILL, SC – The Kappa Alpha Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., and Kut Kreator Barbershop held the 8th Annual Free Back to School Haircuts.

Over 200 students received the free haircuts. The owners of Kut Kreator, brothers Cleavon and Jovon Bradley, and staff offer haircuts before the start of school hoping to give students, who may not have the ability to pay for a haircut, a boost to their self-esteem before they enter their classroom.

Cleavon said, “Everyone feels better after a haircut. We hope this act helps the kids start the year off right.”

In conjunction with the event, The City of Rock Hill’s Rock Hill Reads Program donated school supplies and books for the students. Also Dr. Winslow Schock donated school supplies as well.

All in attendance were also served hotdogs for lunch as Rock Hill Coke sponsored beverages for the cookout.
