

Ques Reading Across America

KA Vice Basileus Carl Dicks displays the illustration from the book he was reading to preschoolers at Carolina Kids Child Development Center

ROCK HILL, SC - The Kappa Alpha Chapter along with the Psi Kappa Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. participated in “Literacy Awareness Month” by reading to the students at Carolina Kids Child Development Center.

For lunch the students and guest enjoyed green eggs & ham, along with birthday cake, to celebrate Dr. Seuss’s birthday.

Mrs. Amanda Cooper, Director of the Center said, “The kids love having men come in to read to their classes. We know this will have a lasting impression on them.”

Omega Biblical Reading

Greetings Brothers,

I pray you all are doing well, and enjoying this life of living for God. Consider the following:

Romans 12:14 Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not. 15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. 16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. 17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

It was once stated that following Christ includes belonging, not just believing. And to belong to something it's imperative to interact, communicate, and be of like mind. We are members of Christ' Body, therefore we belong to a body that must interact, communicate, and be of like mind. I'm afraid that the church today has somewhat emptied the meaning of "belonging to the BODY of Christ". There are some who feel church isn't necessary, others who try and solve the issues of this life with no

GOD in the equation. Belonging today seems too many, simply adding your name to a roll, with no requirements or expectations.

I express to you deeply Brothers that belonging to the BODY has requirements and responsibilities. In the book of Romans, Paul expresses that being a "member" of the church carries an honorable responsibility. You are vital organs to the BODY. We should readjust if necessary and practice the biblical meaning of membership. The church is a body, not a building; an organism, not a roster.

Church provides you a place to revitalize, replenish, and renew your faith! Help "THIS BODY" stay Healthy!

In the same shadow brothers, help our Fraternity to stay Healthy by living the principles of Christian Manhood.

Fraternally,

Chaplin Barksdale

Are you in Good Hands?

When the weather turns bad, it's best to stay off the roads. Heading out when conditions are less than ideal increases your risk of losing control of your car and having a collision. If you can't avoid it, here is what you need to know to lessen your risk and stay safe.

The most common reason for losing control of a car in bad weather is a loss of traction. When weather conditions are bad and the road is wet, muddy, snowy or icy, traction is reduced and your car has a higher chance of slipping out of control. One of the best ways to lessen your chance of losing traction is to slow down and drive smoothly.

Sometimes, despite your best efforts, your car still may lose traction and start skidding or even hydroplane on wet roads. If this happens to you, do not panic. Instead, take your foot off the gas. Look where you want to go and smoothly steer the car in that direction. Give light braking pressure, if needed. Once the car is pointed in the direction you want to go, you can give a little gas as you regain control.

No one likes losing control of their car, especially when the weather is to blame. But, by knowing what to do during and after you have lost control of your car in bad weather, you can better protect yourself and stay safe.
